Arise My Love and Come Away with Me Wendell Ware

This love story is set against the backdrop of war that would forever change the lives of people around the world. Wynn Cary's desire for flying leads him from youth into adulthood to become a pilot. At the University of North Carolina, he meets and falls in love with a beautiful, young woman who shares his passion for flight. Doey Brooks is a junior at the school of law at Duke University and is studying aviation. A chance meeting brings them together and a love is born. As their relationship grows, World War II stalls their plans as they are called to duty. The fears, hopes, violence and faith in our country shadow an intimate story of a love that will never die.
