A romance through time

If you're an Outlander fan, you will love this time traveller story as we follow Marion on her journey from our contemporary time, to 18th century England. When Marion decides to give her virginity to the hot popular guy on campus Blake Harington, she is thrilled that he does not think of her as overweight, as she always thought she was. Instead he desired her voluptuous curves and agreed to let her tutor him in the physics lab one evening. However, what they didn't know is that a rogue physics professor has been using the lab to conduct his own experiments after hours. Marion and Blake unwittingly get traversed across time, but when she wakes in 18th century England, Blake is nowhere to be found. Instead she finds herself in the barn of an arrogant and attractive older man who finds her presence suspicious. He takes her in but thinks she is a run away prostitute, and the confused and perplexed relationship between them becomes one filled with unrequited passion and unfulfilled desires. But will she ever return to her own time, and furthermore... will she want too?

If I Could Turn Back Time is a standalone novel with a happy ending.
