Reporter from Hell Edgar Alan Cole

At an early age Isaiah King thought he had it all. He had a loving family that spoiled him rotten, and his neighborhood was full of hustlers and wise guys that he greatly admired. As he started to get older, Isaiah quickly realized that his family and neighborhood held deep, dark secrets that would eventually rule his life. After witnessing a murder nothing would ever be the same for him. His life would become a living hell. Isaiah gives the reader a vivid, eyewitness account of what it's like to be a good kid growing up amongst so many negative influences. After reading this novel, you will never be the same...
