WINNER of the 2014 Gold/First Place Feathered Quill Book Award in the Animal/Children fiction category. Finalist in the 2014 International Book Awards in Children's Fiction category.

Being different can be lonely. But compromising her values just to fit in was not a path the gentle Beagle was willing to take. Fall in love with the gentle Beagle as her bravery and kind heart help her find her true calling. Her courageous journey begins as a hunting dog living in a barn deep in the woods of Virginia.

Through scary events and daunting challenges, her uncertain fate leads directly to her life's purpose.

Touching the lives of so many along the way, she will reach off the pages and touch your heart as well. The memorable characters in this heartwarming tale teach us lessons about compassion for animals, and strength of character. Even though her life takes some unexpected turns, the gentle Beagle stays true to herself and becomes the best kind of hero, a hero of the heart.
