Billionaire Romance

Sasha Banks works for Events R Us. Almost every week she's surrounded by successful and beautiful men, but she has been burned by love. After being ruthlessly dumped for a more successful and attractive woman, she hides away behind a mask of timidity. She makes a vow never to let a man hurt her again and throws herself into her work. When she meets Cole Lockson, she has urges that she hasn't felt in years. When she falls for the handsome and successful man, she realizes that she doesn't stand a chance. He seems no different than her ex-fiancee.

Cole Lockson, entrepreneur and billionaire, has successfully built a popular consulting firm. His wealth, charm, and looks cause women to chase after him, and he enjoys their attention and company. The quiet and meek assistant to his event coordinator catches his attention on multiple occasions, but she never seems interested in him. After all, she can't even look him in the eye when she talks to him. What would she do if he touched her?

When Sasha finds herself killing some time in an occult shop, she unknowingly leaves with a love potion. After coordinating a successful event for Cole, she finds herself under his appraising eye. She basks in the glow, but life quickly intervenes. More than one woman has their eye on Cole, and they're all vying for his attention. And after seeing Cole with a gaggle of beautiful women, emotions take over, and Sasha slips Cole the potion.

Something happened that night, and now Cole can't stop thinking about Sasha. Gone was the woman who would practically hide whenever he was in the room. A beautiful and confident woman stands before him, and Cole will do whatever it takes to have her. He never pursues, and he never acts so rashly, but there is a feeling of doom over him. If he doesn't act quickly, he's afraid he'll lose her forever.

For days, they hole themselves up away from the world and explore each other. They share dreams and stories of the past. They spend every passionate moment together getting to know each other's bodies. He wants nothing more than to see the look on her face when she fall apart around him, and she loves it when he loses that pristine control. Sasha opens up to him and reveals just about every truth, but soon, the fairy tale must end. The potion only lasts for seven days. She just knows that when the seven days are up, he'll be just like her ex-fiancee. After all, wealthy, handsome, and successful men never look twice at her. Why would Cole be any different?

When Sasha finally tells him the truth, will he ever trust her again?
