The Lake House is a short story that occurs amongst four friends that had known themselves right from college. Allen, Daina, Rachel and Richard are the four friends. Allen is currently dating Daina while Richard is in love with Rachel. They have been apart for a while before they decided to have a good time together in Richard's house. It was more or less like a short vacation for the four friends. Allen and Daina left their kids at home in order to have a good time with Richard and Rachel. After several hours of driving, Allen and Daina got to Richard's house. Everywhere looks beautiful as the whole house was built with glass and the environment looks natural. They were very excited when they got there and before they knew it, Rachel had come out to welcome them in. They were glad to see each other once again since their days in college. They decided to eat and drink together until they all got drunk. In order not to waste the night, they all agreed to play the one game they used to play during the days at college, " Never Have I Ever... " which is their version of Truth or Dare. It's safe to say, they all were in for a really fun time and they all had an interesting night at the lake house.
