The Last Flower: A Story of Love, Life and Loss Robert Lampkin

The Last Flower is a gut-wrenchingly honest and candid portrait of one man's journey on life, love, grief and commitment to family. Robert "Poppy" Lampkin shares this journey through his journal which gives you a blow by blow account of the torment, angst, loneliness and joy that comes as an attachment to love. The willingness to openly share his journey makes The Last Flower a book which grants to each reader access to their own personal power and the freedom to discover the truth for themselves. The Last Flower demonstrates that we can retrieve our life and purpose no matter what the loss is when we depend on a power greater than ourselves. The Last Flower is for anyone who: Has lost their childhood. Is in pain and dying inside. Grieving the loss of a child. Have cried themselves to sleep. No longer dream or have hopes. Grieving the inability to have a child Who is considering suicide or homicide. Feel their home have become their prison. Have been consoled only by the warmth of their tears. Is wondering where God is in the midst of their storm. Who have been betrayed and hurt by those they loved.
