Mismatch Lensey Namioka

Sue Hua just moved from racially diverse Seattle to a suburban white-bread town where she feels like the only Asian American for miles. Then she meets Andy, a handsome and passionate violin player who happens to be Asian American. Sue feels an instant attraction to Andy, and her white friends think they're "made for each other"—after all, they both use chopsticks and eat a lot of rice, right? But there's just one problem. Andy's last name is Suzuki. And while that may mean nothing to the other students at Lakeview High, Sue knows that it presents a world of problems to her family.

Lowell Decoteau:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or even make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's soul or real their pastime. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring along with can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Mismatch can make you experience more interested to read.
