Rommel: The Desert Fox Desmond Young

Egypt and Libya were safely Allied hands with the defeat of nine Italian divisions. Then Adolf Hitler sent his star General, Erwin Rommel to take command of Afrika Corps and turn them around. The author, Maj. Desmond Young, MC, chased and was chased all over the Sahara and Morocco until the final confrontation in Tunisia and defeat of German forces there. This back and forth journey earned Rommel the nickname The Desert Fox. The volume also relates Rommel's future as commander of the Western Wall, which was broken on D-Day and his ultimate fate when he was named as a conspirator in Operation Valkyrie.
