Chambers of the Heart J.G. Pajot

An eclectic anthology of poetry and short stories that span over thirty years of the authors life, many of which reflect his semi-Wiccan theologies, that "the Divine is Nature, and Nature is the Divine". Mystical, magical, sometimes humorous, sometimes tragic, and full of philosophies that will make you think, this IS the authors "voice"; a voice that is often more akin to Victorian Romanticism than modern "reality", and yet able to say what needs to be said.
