A Trip Down Reality Lane Ian Thomas Malone

College life can be tough... For a junior pursuing a degree in English with no plans for his future, living in the present is far better than the alternative. One morning he wakes up and embarks on an acid trip to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts with two of his friends. A step outside reality might be the best way to come back down to earth... Along the way, the three friends discover what matters most to them, and more importantly, that life is not so much about answers as it is about the exploration of the questions. When the real world doesn't quite cut it, take a journey down the rabbit hole.
