God has a strategy for the times of crisis, war, persecution and social upheaval that the end-times will bring. Even now this divine initiative and strategy is being made known to the church worldwide. Places of Refuge are emerging in the nations. This book serves as a "first of it's kind" resource for builders of refuge. Through demystifying the topic of refuge and giving a clarion call that great trouble and great triumph are upon us, Places of Refuge: Mercy in the Coming Storm is both a practical and provoking read. Using biblical, historical and contemporary examples, Craig is able to clearly articulate 5 Expressions of Refuge that emerge during times of great pressure and trial. If you've wondered what role you have in the end-time drama or how the church should reprioritize it's mission in light of the coming hour, then this book is a must have.
