Rabos de lagartija (Spanish Edition) Juan Marsé

Rabos de lagartija*, novela galardonada con el Premio de la Crítica y el Premio Nacional de Literatura, corrobora la condición de Juan Marsé como uno de los más grandes novelistas del actual panorama literario europeo.

Los inolvidables personajes de esta novela, como la entrañable y desgarrada pareja formada por el adolescente David y su perro Chispa, el enamorado inspector Galván o Rosa Bartra, la hermosa pelirroja embarazada, obedecen a una tristeza y una estafa histórica muy concretas, pero también a la estafa eterna de los sueños, encarnada aquí por las fantasmales apariciones de un padre libertario fugitivo y de un elegante piloto de la RAF que, desde la vieja fotografía de una revista colgada en la pared, actúa como confidente del fantasioso David.

Con estos personajes, con un lenguaje translúcido que contrasta con la honda carga emotiva y moral que discurre por debajo de la trama, Rabos de lagartija, dotada de una estructura narrativa tan sabia como imaginativa y mostrando cuán frágiles y ambiguos son los límites entre la realidad y la ficción, la verdad y la mentira, el bien y el mal, el amor y el desamor, corrobora la condición de Juan Marsé como uno de los novelistas mayores, no solo de las letras hispanas, sino de las actuales narrativas europeas.

Reseñas:

«Su maestría pone de manifiesto en la increíble habilidad con que resuelve situaciones imposibles, en la calculada ambigüedad con que dibuja a los personajes, en la sabiduría con que unos pocos motivos recurrente acaban por cementar el relato, dotándolo de una poderosa trama metafórica.»

Ignacio Echevarría

«Con el tiempo, se ha ido adueñando del mundo de Marsé y de su estilo narrativo una sabiduría que solo está al alcance de los mejores.»

Enrique Vila-Matas
