I Heard the Owl Call My Name Margaret Craven

The story is one that is very true to the world today - it talks about a culture that is slowly being lost to technology. It is a very touching story, about love, loss, friendship, trust....in fact it is about every conceivable human emotion. It is told in a beautiful way, that is incredibly realistic, and transports you to its setting. The myths and stories that are described are very insightful of the tribal culture.
