Since bouldering around San Diego is very popular and well-documented, we decided to concentrate on sport and top-rope routes. And, as climbers who have moved frequently and used many a guidebook in our time, we were determined to create a book especially suited for use in the field. The book's components and design - from descriptive info and diagrams to coil binding and horizontal orientation - all target practicality. Our goal is to minimize the time and energy-sapping minutia that can come before roping up, freeing you to enjoy the challenge of the route itself. -from book's introduction.
