You are not alone in your confusion, anger, and pain. There have been more than 50 million abortions in America since 1973. If even just 10% of the women related to an abortion are in pain, then there may be more than 5 million women suffering in silence right now. That's roughly equivalent to the entire population of metropolitan Atlanta, Georgia. Or the combination of everybody living in Alaska plus everybody living in Connecticut. Or nearly everybody living in either Kentucky, Alabama, or South Carolina. You are not alone! We don't hear much in the media about this pain, but there are women who are speaking out (for example, the "Silent No More" campaign). You are courageous to seek healing. You are about to begin the process of repairing and recovering. Your body is God's temple. Repairing damage to your spiritual and mental health is part of your responsibility as a "temple" owner. Like any home improvement project, this process may involve a little work, a little sweat, and a little pain. But it is worth it! This is the Leader's Guide for a Bible Study for small groups of women who wish to pursue healing of guilt and anguish following an abortion.
