Summer Vacation - Part I Dick B Long

Summer Vacation is a new series, tracking the coming of age adventures of Brit Holland, who is eighteen going on twenty-five. His story includes his dysfunctional family, his alcoholic parents, and his older sister, Yvette, who is addicted to marijuana and willing to do anything to acquire it.

Usually they just go by the flip-of-a-coin in choosing their vacation, but this year they are going to the beach specifically because Bill Holland wants to enter a poker tournament. There are only two requirements for his parents' fun—gambling and abundant alcohol.

Bill leaves his wife, Charlene, to her own devices and she is offended that he prefers gambling to spending time with her. She soon meets a young man who is determined to get her in bed and providing all the alcohol she can consume.

Yvette befriends an eighteen-year-old girl who is so over-protected by her mother, she acts like a fourteen year old, but is quickly attracted to Brit. However, Brit is busy pursuing an experienced woman who is ten years older, so close yet so far away.

The stage is set for the Summer Vacation of their lives.
