What does your baby like to do right now? Growing Child is the nation's #1 parent newsletter since 1971 that has served over 7 million families and is now available in book form. Growing Child is timed to your child's age. Having a child is one of life's most special events and this occurs with greater ease, comfort, and joy when parents assume their roles with knowledge. Growing Child helps provide this knowledge in a collection of monthly child development newsletters that are timed to YOUR child's age. Each month's issue in the book is composed of six pages of advice, reassurance, encouragement-- and timely information that summarizes typical development and tells you what to look for along with age-specific activities to encourage enjoyable parent-child interactions. Some issues contain checklists of guidelines for evaluating milestones in your child's development. The book also includes a bonus email subscription with Growing Parent and Grandma Says newsletters. Growing Child is a must have for new parents!
