I'll Meet You at the Base of the Mountain: One woman's journey from grief to life. Donna Visocky Successful business woman and married mother of four, Donna Visocky never expected her comfortably predictable life to take the heart-stopping twist it did early one morning in 2003. It was a “parent’s worst nightmare” scenario – an insistent doorbell ring at 5:30 a.m., police cars parked in front of her house, and two officers and a chaplain standing on her front porch. Trembling and barely able to breathe, Donna froze for a brief moment just inches from the front door. She knew that by opening the door, she was somehow agreeing to accept whatever terrible thing had happened — what her heart was screaming to her would be soul-crippling news. She was right. What these men were there to tell her was unthinkable, more horrific than she could have ever imagined – Kristi, her daughter, had been killed in a car accident just one mile from home.

In I'll Meet You at the Base of the Mountain, Donna candidly shares – often with brutal honesty — the most intimate moments of her inner and outer struggle to rebuild her life after the loss of her child. Motivated by guidance she receives from Kristi on the other side, and a compelling, but puzzling directive: “I’ll meet you at the base of the mountain,” Donna begins a soul’s journey to find meaning and hope in the midst of tragedy.

The path to “the base of the mountain” leads to life-changing interactions with Mediums from around the globe, Spiritual/Self-help “rock stars,” and Hollywood icons. And, although the path twists and turns in often surprising and frustrating ways, she never loses sight of her final destination. Donna’s emotion-packed story inspires and empowers, calling us all to live every moment of our lives with passion and purpose.
