Has the attack of September 11th, 2001, caused you to think about the reality of Islamic fundamentalism around the world? How can you discern the truth about this new threat?

Islam and New Global Realities is a detailed response to the most common questions people are asking:

Why was there an attack?

Does the Koran encourage Muslims to be violent?

Why do so many Islamic countries hate the West?

Who was the prophet Muhammad and what did he do?

Is Allah the same deity as the God of the Bible?

Although good answers to those questions will increase everyone's understanding of current and historical events, this book is primarily written to equip Christians to share God's love with Muslims in every corner of the world.
