Sabrina's Window Al Riske

Luminis Books presents this gut-wrenchingly honest tale of love that happily defies societal expectations to deliver a story that packs a wallop emotional punch.

On a chilly morning in Taos, New Mexico, a 17-year-old paperboy breaks the window of a 31-year-old hair stylist--an accident that marks the beginning of an instant, inexplicable bond between them.

During the course of one high-desert summer, Joshua and Sabrina share confidences, intercede in each other's love lives, go on a date that scandalizes the town, and confront questions of fidelity, desire, and the nature of love.
