Logically, how could a horse-breedin' Texan fall in love with an abused Amish woman? Because love transcends all logic.

HOLT MASON

After returning from the Gulf War and finding that his wife had betrayed him, Holt spent over twenty years frequenting the bars in Bandera, hosting guests at his ranch, and being used by every woman in town for his money. His faithful equine companion, Cinnamon, carries him into the fog every morning to ponder the circumstances of life—which drastically change when God places him at the right place and time to meet a virtuous woman.

ELIZABETH SUTTER

Elizabeth's life as a spinster is consumed with caring for her widowed father and siblings—until the accident near San Antonio causes her to question the Amish vow she made years ago.

BUCK SCOTT

An investigator with the Medina County Sheriff's Office and long-time friend of Holt Mason, Buck is assigned to track down a worthless kidnapper who preys on innocent Amish women.
