After being dismissed from the Army, the only family Hank Adams has ever known, Hank embraces his demons. Follow Hank as his obsession with Kate, as his obsession with hate, and his obsession with vengeance collide in gruesome detail in and around New York City. Serving as a shadow warrior, both sanctioned and unsanctioned, all over the world has given Hank access to every weapon system imagined. And he is about to loose this arsenal on New York, all in attempt to win back Kate. Kate. Kate. Kate. Kate. She is his obsession. Perhaps Hank will become yours. Author's Note... On February 26, 1993, a truck bomb came perilously close to dropping the World Trade Center. I was knocked out of my chair by the blast. Less than ten months later, on December 7, 1993, Colin Ferguson shot 26 people on the Long Island Rail Road. I will never forget the blood on the windows. Obsession for Vengeance was written during these dark and tense days in New York that many predicted foretold the end of the world. The seed of the story was "what could one truly deranged man with skills and resources do to New York City? Unfortunately, on 9/11, we all witnessed a real life version.
